Dear Mr. Kerning:

I wanted to take a moment away from the day-to-day hustle of city government to acknowledge two of your team members. The New York City Department of Consumer Affairs recently completed an upgrade of its LAN infrastructure. As part of this project we deployed NetApps equipment to augment our backup and disaster recovery plans. Steven Huarneck and Nicholas Sinish were vital resources throughout the installation. They directly contributed to the success of this implementation. They demonstrated professionalism and technical expertise throughout the project. It was quite refreshing to see technical people focused on the many aspects of customer service. Please express my gratitude for a job well done.

Very Truly Yours,

Christopher Montgomery
